DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (If known) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

This small outbuilding may have been a wagon-horse over some foundations. Log construction, vertical siding, <sup>two</sup> wide doors open up the area ~~approx~~ about 10' by 18' at ground level. The logs have open cheeks that would protect the inside from most effects of bad weather before the vertical siding was added. A tin roof covers old shingles. The pitch roof ridgepole runs north-south.
